

Isaiah 33:22 (NIV)

For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; it is he who will save us.

- James Madison, 1787 Constitutional Convention

James Madison, 1778 Va. Gen Assmb

“We have staked the whole future of American civilization, not upon the power of government, far from it. We’ve staked the future of all our political institutions upon our capacity...to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God.”

Pres. Washington

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

[New York, 3 October 1789]

By the President of the United States of America. a Proclamation.

Pres. Washington

Whereas it is the duty of all Nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly to implore his protection and favor...

John Adams

(Signer of DoI & 2nd President)

1837 Fourth of July address at Newburyport, Massachusetts.

John Adams

Why is it that next to the birthday of the Savior of the World, your most joyous and most venerated festival returns on this day [July 4th]? . . . Is it not that in the chain of human events, the birthday of the nation is indissolubly linked with the birthday of the Savior?

John Adams

That it forms a leading event in the progress of the Gospel dispensation? Is it not that the Declaration of Independence first organized the social compact on the foundation of the Redeemer's mission upon earth?

John Adams

That it laid the corner stone of human government upon the first precepts of Christianity...

John Adams

...and gave to the world the first irrevocable pledge of the fulfillment of the prophecies, announced directly from Heaven at the birth of the Savior and predicted by the greatest of the Hebrew prophets six hundred years before?

1883 Illinois Supreme Court

“Our laws & our institutions must necessarily be based upon & embody the teachings of the Redeemer of mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise...

1883 Illinois Supreme Court

...In this sense & to this extent, our civilizations and our institutions are emphatically Christian.”

Declaration of Independance

We hold these truths to be self-evident,

- that all men are created equal,
- that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,
- that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

Declaration of Independance

- That to secure these rights,
Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,

Declaration of Independance

- That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles...

Charles Carroll - Signer of Dec

Without morals a republic cannot subsist any length of time; they therefore who are decrying the Christian religion, ...are undermining the solid foundation of morals, the best security for the duration of free governments.

Charles Carroll - Signer of Dec

- and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Charles Carroll - Signer of Dec

- ...And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.
